

Conservation Advisory Council Home

Pump Out Your Septic System

Pump out your septic system!

It's a good idea to maintain your septic system regularly and now it's also the law.

To protect the quality of the area's drinking water, Westchester County and Lewisboro instituted a septic inspection requirement in 2011 that...

Read More

Conservation Advisory Council

The Town of Lewisboro's Conservation Advisory Council \(CAC\) was established in 1970, in accordance with New York State's General Municipal Law, to advise in the development, management and protection of the Town's natural resources. Activities sanctioned by the law included preparing open space...

Read More

Tree Preservation Ordinance

The Town of Lewisboro promotes the protection of existing trees and provides for the replacement and planting of new trees. In April 2021, the Lewisboro Town Board adopted Chapter 203 of the Code, "Tree Preservation," ordinance to preserve and protect the trees in our community, while balancing...

Read More

